

Glossary

Facilitative, multilateral consideration of progress (FMCP): this process will build on the current International Assessment and Review for developed and ICA for developing countries. First, the BTR will undergo an international technical expert review (TER), and second, each Party will participate in a FMCP with respect to efforts, and its respective implementation and achievement of its NDC.