

Glossary

Institutional arrangements: institutional arrangements are the policies, systems, and processes that organisations use to legislate, plan and manage their activities efficiently and to effectively coordinate with others in order to fulfil their mandate. In order to compile and report the information needed in national reports on a biennial basis (e.g. the Biennial Transparency Report), or more frequently for other national needs, countries need appropriate institutional arrangements.